

Market-Responsive IPM Policy: Experiences & the Way Forward

CDCS Knowledge Institute, with support from Katalyst, organized a policy dialogue on “Market-Responsive IPM Policy: Experiences and the Way Forward” on 27 February 2016 at Brac Centre Inn, Dhaka. Prof. Sheikh Morshed Jahan presented the keynote paper and moderated the discussion. An introductory note on the earlier policy intervention was offered by Katalyst and Ispahani. The event discussed the past, present and future of IPM in Bangladesh, with special focus on policy and intervention needs. IPM experts from public and private sectors participated in the event.

The panel of discussants includes Dr. Md. Zainul Abedin and Dr. A.N.M. Rezaul Karim from B-SAFE, Chaitanya Das and Md. Rezaul Islam from DAE, Dr. Syed Nurul Alam from BARI, Md. Shoaib Choudhury from DCCI, Mujibur Rahman from BCPA and Rezaul Karim Siddiqui from CDCS Communications. Besides, representatives from Ispahani, GME Agro and Brac Seed & Agro Enterprise were present.

Prof. Dr. Rahim B. Talukdar, President, CDCS Knowledge Institute chaired the program, while Syeda Farzana Morshed, Managing Director, CDCS[®] offered the vote of thanks.